2	Many improvements & repairs have to wait – we cannot afford them.	2/14/2017 6:58 PM
3	Just recently got into black and although not real strong financially, the long-term increase in finances seems to be occurring.	2/13/2017 9:34 PM
4	It's been much worse but lately things are turning around	2/13/2017 7:12 PM
5	We have corrected some problems. We're doing better but not well enough.	2/13/2017 4:36 PM
6	Not yet	2/13/2017 2:31 PM
7	This is improving	11/13/2016 11:17 AM
8	We are stable. Hallelujah!	11/3/2016 9:57 AM
9	This church has a large percentage of the congregation who are on fixed incomes, so they cannot increase their contributions. We are also currently supporting the Children's Day Out program as an outreach of the Church, which is a further drawdown of available income that could otherwise be put toward the Church financial picture.	10/22/2016 10:13 AM

1	I'm not sure there is follow-up for first time guests	2/14/2017 6:31 AM
2	It's supposed to have but I don't know if it's working.	2/13/2017 4:36 PM
3	The hospitality is what got me to join and to come back to worship. I'm now in Sunday School. I'm the only person in my household who attends and gives to a church, so the hospitality makes me feel "woven in" at the church.	2/13/2017 2:33 PM
4	not really	2/13/2017 2:32 PM
5	it is moving in that direction, but don't feel it is there yet.	2/13/2017 2:31 PM
6	We do have greeters on Sunday mornings, but I don't know that there is any specific or intentional followup with first time visitors.	10/22/2016 10:13 AM
7	We have one member who is very good with this but we depend only on her.	10/22/2016 9:36 AM

Q20 It is easy to initiate change in our congregation with little resistance.

2	Yes and no. It depends on what is being changed.	2/13/2017 9:34 PM
3	We went from three distinctly different worship services to one integrating elements of all three...attendance improving beyond prior levels...cong quickly adapted to dramatic change in budget management...sold parsonage...changed to part time pastor from Elder....working very well	2/13/2017 7:22 PM
4	It's easier than it used to be.	2/13/2017 4:36 PM
5	Most of the time we make changes as needed, but not sure if it is because of agreements or apathy	2/13/2017 2:31 PM
6	Not sure. There have been changes that appear to have been made with little resistance but there are many things that appear to be static. In general, my observation suggests that KUMC members are well meaning and open to being approached, if not bold in their outreach efforts	11/14/2016 9:35 PM
7	It's less resistance than entropy.	11/3/2016 9:57 AM

14	Christy Thomas - determination	2/13/2017 2:39 PM
15	Part-time Pastor Don Kirsch - Gave hope	11/17/2016 1:56 PM
16	Don Kirsch - Good leadership	11/17/2016 1:34 PM
17	Pastor Don Was strong at bringing people together (a uniter), he also was a very strong speaker of the weekly sermon (message was well presented)	11/14/2016 9:43 PM
18	Jessica-her energy and love of the church	11/13/2016 11:28 AM
19	Jessica Wright also is a powerful preacher, but inherited financial difficulties she was not prepared for.	11/3/2016 10:22 AM

9	Valerie Mireb - Was able to reach the youth	2/13/2017 2:54 PM
10	Rev. Kevin McLain - This pastor is warm, plain-spoken, but very wise. He imparts deep theological observations in a way that is much, much more accessible than Rev. Thomas (I LOVE her). His sermon on Sunday about the judgment levied against anger was presented very simply, but scorched a spot on my heart that has been hardened against evangelical supporters of Donald Trump. I was upset by the sermon, but usually, a sermon that upsets me ends up being important.	2/13/2017 2:48 PM
11	Kevin McClain- sense of humor willingness to be a part of the congregation	2/13/2017 2:39 PM

12	Jessica Wright - Good leadership	11/17/2016 1:34 PM

24	Not sure there are three. And I am not privy to a fair amount of the problem. It centered around some of Christy Thomas' financial management, near as I can tell--and I do mean mismanagement, not anything crooked. At the same time, Children's Day Out also suffered some financial problems. The head of CDO was abruptly fired and there was a resulting malaise that I think newcomers to the church could pick up on, so they did not stay. It is past. If there is more to the story, I don't know it.	11/3/2016 10:22 AM
